

Record of Foreign Travel Notification by a Registered Sex Offender for Police Records

This form comprises three sections.

The information requested in the first section MUST be provided by the offender in all cases where such information is available. Foreign travel notifications must be made seven days before the anticipated date of departure where the information is held by the offender. Where the information is not known seven days before departure, the offender must give the foreign travel notification at least twelve hours before departure.

The information which must be notified includes the departure date, the destination country (or first country if there is more than one) and such other information (where it is known to the offender) prescribed in legislation. The offender should be warned that if it later becomes clear that he/she was in possession of any of the specified information and did not provide it 12 or more hours prior to departure, he/she will be liable to be prosecuted. An offender who fails to comply with the requirements set out above without reasonable excuse, or who provides the police with information which he or she knows to be false, could be sent to prison for up to five years.

The offender may be asked to provide the information in the second section but he/she is not obliged to provide it.
