

Wednesday 22nd November 1000 - 1200

FREE SESSIONS

SPACES LIMITED, FIRST COME FIRST SERVED

REGISTER FOR EITHER:

Building Resilience Workshop

The session will be led by Robertson Cooper

The focus of this session will be to introduce the topic generally and provide delegates with some practical 'take aways', including spotting signs and symptoms and 'top tips'. The session will also include: introducing the concepts of wellbeing resilience and a good day at work, why these are important and presenting some practical tips that delegates can use to have control of their work environment.

SPACES ARE LIMITED TO 30 IN SYNDICATE LAYOUT

Media Law

The session will be led by Amanda Ball

An interactive session hosted and presented by Amanda Ball who is Senior Lecturer in Media Law and Public Administration at the Centre for Broadcasting and Journalism at Nottingham Trent University and has been employed by APComm to deliver media law training for a number of years. Amanda will provide a comprehensive overview of media law including Contempt, an overview of the implications of Leveson. If you are attending this session and have an issue you would like covered, please e-mail Amanda direct and she will attempt to include the subject area in her presentation: amandajball17@gmail.com

SPACES ARE LIMITED TO 60 IN THEATRE STYLE LAYOUT

CLICK HERE to register